

Databases Used by Research Staff

Lexis-Nexis – Full-text legal, legislative, news, and reference information

Factiva – 2800 trade publications and news sources such as Reuters, the Wall Street Journal, and local and international newspapers

First Search – Bibliographic and indexing services, including Dissertation Abstracts and the Index to Legal Periodicals

Books in Print – Published reviews and ordering information for thousands of U.S. titles, searchable by subject

Federal News Service – Transcripts of Washington D.C. testimony, hearings, briefings, and press conferences

GaleNet – Associations Unlimited, Biography Resource Center, & Expanded Academic Index with the full text of articles from 900 journals

Stat-USA – Economic, industry, and trade statistics from the U.S. Department of Commerce

Leadership Directories – Up-to-date directories of the U.S. Congress, judiciary, federal, state, and city governments, law firms, NGOs, media, and associations

Facts on File – Concise chronologies of world events drawn from major newspapers

Service Hours and Information

The Information Resource Center is open to visitors by appointment. The Center is closed on American and Ethiopian holidays. For the current holiday schedule, check our web site.

STAFF: IRC DIRECTOR

HOURS FOR APPOINTMENTS & TELEPHONE INQUIRIES

Monday-Wednesday	09:00–12:00 14:00–16:00
Friday	09:00–12:00

Visit Our Web Site
http:// ethiopia.usembassy.gov

PHONE:	251-1-17-43-22 251-1-17-40-07
FAX:	251-1-24-24-54
E-MAIL:	ircaddis@state.gov

INFORMATION RESOURCE CENTER

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES

ADDIS ABABA, ETHIOPIA

LOUIS ARMSTRONG
"Satchmo"

Information Resource Center

U.S. Embassy
Entoto Road, P.O. Box 1014
ADDIS ABABA

251-1-17-43-22
251-1-17-40-07

http:// ethiopia.usembassy.gov

Louis Armstrong
("Satchmo")
Information Resource Center

The Satchmo Center is an information service of the U.S. Embassy in Ethiopia.

We provide accurate, up to-date information and background about the United States to promote the mutual understanding of social, cultural, political, legal, economic, and environmental issues.

The Satchmo Center assists government officials, journalists, the judiciary, educators, economists, health professionals, NGOs, and others with professional or scholarly interest in the United States.

Information services focus on:

- U.S. Society, Institutions, and Values
- Democracy and Governance
- Human Rights
- Economic and Trade Issues
- Health and HIV/AIDS
- Law, Legislation, and Justice
- Media & Information Technology

If You Need Information On . . .

- A Speech
- Address of an Organization
- U.S. Trade or Economic Statistics
- Popular American Music
- American Business or Cultural Leaders
- U.S. Supreme Court Decisions
- Recent Articles from Major Newspapers or Journals
- U.S. State or Federal Legislation
- World Conferences on Poverty, Health, or the Environment

. . . Contact Us!

Services Include . . .

REFERENCE & INFORMATION

Qualified staff is available to answer questions on U.S. policy and other information about the United States.

Queries may be submitted by telephone, fax, mail, or e-mail.

RESEARCH

Visitors may call for an appointment to use our library of books, current periodicals, CD-ROMs, and the Internet.

ARTICLE ALERTS

The Information Resource Center can send you summaries of current articles and reports on democracy, development, trade, legislation, health, environment, and other issues. Our staff sends the full text of items that you select from the lists. To subscribe to this service, contact the Information Resource Center.